Dear Members of the Graduate Admissions Committee,

It is with great enthusiasm that I write to recommend Elin Marie for admission to the MBA program in Marketing at Oregon State University. Having known and worked closely with Elin for the past 18 years, I can say with complete confidence that she is an outstanding professional and an exceptional human being.

Throughout nearly two decades of collaboration on a wide range of marketing projects, I have had the privilege of witnessing Elin's work ethic, strategic thinking, and creativity firsthand. Whether leading initiatives or contributing as a team member, Elin consistently brings clarity, dedication, and insight to every challenge. In instances where we have worked independently, we've relied on each other as trusted sounding boards—Elin's feedback has always been thoughtful, practical, and deeply informed by her extensive experience.

Above all, Elin is a person of integrity. Her character and professionalism have made her not only a reliable colleague but also someone whose judgment I have come to trust implicitly. Her deep understanding of the marketing field, combined with her unwavering ethical standards, makes her a uniquely qualified candidate for your program.

Elin Marie will undoubtedly be a valuable asset to Oregon State University and a wonderful ambassador for your institution. I recommend her without reservation and look forward to seeing all that she will accomplish as part of your MBA cohort.

Please feel free to contact me should you require any further information.

Sincerely,
Ed Ernsting
